

How to lead and manage RE in your school:

Guidance for co-ordinators

Tuesday 18th June, 9am – 3pm, Ashmount School, Loughborough

We are excited to offer the first of a number of courses focusing on Religious Education.

This course is being led by Wendy Harrison, an independent education consultant.

About this course

This course helps RE co-ordinators to get to grips with what their responsibilities are and provides practical guidance about how to carry them out. It covers areas such as planning, meeting legal requirements, monitoring and evaluation and assessment.

With Ofsted's new focus on the wider curriculum, this will be a great opportunity to reflect on practice in your own school and to discuss ideas and ways to develop RE provision.

Who should attend?

This course is suitable for senior leaders and Religious Education subject leaders. It is relevant for those who are new to the role or those who are more experienced.

About the trainer

Wendy Harrison works as an independent consultant offering bespoke support and training for primary and secondary schools on a range of issues, e.g. curriculum review and development, preparation for Ofsted, religious education, SMSC and British values.

She works part-time as the RE Adviser for two local authorities, supporting primary and secondary schools in areas such as planning, assessment and teaching about religions and world-views.

Click here to book a place

Dates for your diary

We have also arranged for Wendy to run the following CPD for us:

Teaching about religions: A practical guide
Tuesday 8th October, 9am – 3pm

You can book on to this course by clicking here.

£95 (members)
£120 (non-members)