

Outstanding British Values

Tuesday 4th December, 9am – 3pm, Ashmount School, Loughborough

'Pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development, and the promotion of British Values, must be at the heart of a school's work to achieve 'Outstanding' status.' - Ofsted

Who should attend?

This course is suitable for Primary Staff including British Values Coordinators, Subject Leaders, PSHE Co-ordinators, Key Stage Coordinators, Senior Leaders, Middle Leaders, Class Teachers, Teaching Assistants and School Governors

What is it?

Delegates will explore the purpose of British Values, why it has come into being and where British Values fit into the Curriculum.

Also, how to dovetail activities with their own school's core values, pick up resources, ideas and activities to enhance provision and provide positive delivery throughout your school and its community.

What will I do?

Take part in practical activities designed for all ages from EYFS to KS2 that promote British Values, SMSC and PSHE and can easily be part of your existing curriculum.

By the end of this session, you will have clarity in what is expected of your school and how to deliver strong, successful and relevant activities across the curriculum through different pathways of teaching and learning.

You will also understand what constitutes unsuitable and underwhelming provision with real-world examples.
